

CONTINUED COVERAGE and CONTINUED PEACE OF MIND

Having health insurance through your employer lets you rest easy knowing that you're covered. But what happens if a life event changes your eligibility for coverage?

Under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA), your Coeur health plan coverage can extend beyond your time of eligibility—to give you continued peace of mind.

COBRA makes it possible for you to temporarily continue existing coverage for you or your family in the case of certain qualifying events, including:

Voluntary or involuntary termination of employment

Medicare qualification

Dependent child ceasing to be dependent

Divorce or legal separation

Death

With COBRA provided by your employer, you'll have one less thing to worry about if a life-changing event takes place. Rest assured—we've got you covered.
